Even though the brunette and I had made eye contact several times over the course of the weekend, I'd never talked to her. The two halves of the wedding party never mingled enough to provide a natural opportunity for conversation. At the dozen or so weddings of which I'd been a part, the bridesmaids and groomsmen showed up ready to be friendly and have a good time, but by contrast, most of Bears friends were married and uninterested in getting to know Laurens friends, the majority of whom we

introducing the yahoo! personals experiment

As part of our exploration into the interesting and oftentimes frustrating field of online dating, we're going to run a series of blog posts that delve into this process in detail as one of our own goes undercover, uploading her profile and exposing herself to the wild world of Yahoo! Personals. Like Law & Order SVU's ripped-from-the-headlines subject matter, we promise to showcase the most outrageous personal ads for your personal enjoyment, with very little censorship besides name-changes
